1. [REDACTED] noted that this was another in a series of briefings being conducted in various agencies to aid the task team in developing a content control scheme. He then introduced [REDACTED], who briefed the team on primary distribution of NSA, field, and collaborating center end-product. Notes on this briefing and ensuing discussion are on file with the CODIB Support Staff.

2. [REDACTED] reminded members that their "think" papers on content control (paragraph 3, T/I/M-9) are due 23 February 1965 to the CODIB Support Staff. These papers will be reproduced and distributed to each member for review and consideration prior to discussion at the team meeting scheduled for 2 March 1965.

3. The secretary was requested to obtain the results of Task Team II deliberations on item categorization for possible use at the next task team meeting. This will be an all-day session on area and subject content control commencing at 0900 on 16 February 1965 at CIA Headquarters. Members are requested to have their SI clearances certified to CIA, specifying the purpose as a CODIB Task Team meeting in the Special Center. The host for the meeting is the CODIB Support Staff, [REDACTED]
